

A Heart to Worship

June 13, 2010

1 John 1:5—2:2

I. _____ hearts testify to a deep _____ of how to walk with God.

A. By bringing God into our _____, we show _____ in our walk with God.

God, will you _____ my _____?

B. By bargaining with God over our _____, we show _____ between our beliefs and behavior.

_____ sin must stay _____ so it will be _____.

C. By betraying God in our _____ of sin, we show _____ for the spiritual life God desires.

No confession—_____ of no need _____ atheism

II. Our _____ hearts testify to the _____ nature of real _____.

A. The _____: Our goal should be _____ to sin!

B. The _____: Our _____ is not in ourselves, but in our Advocate!

C. The _____: Our life is to be _____ in the power of the _____ of our life!

In my walk:

1. I should have a _____ soul.
2. I should have a _____ life.
3. I should have a _____ will.
4. I should have a _____ heart.

A Heart to Worship

June 13, 2010

1 John 1:5—2:2

I. _____ hearts testify to a deep _____ of how to walk with God.

A. By bringing God into our _____, we show _____ in our walk with God.

God, will you _____ my _____?

B. By bargaining with God over our _____, we show _____ between our beliefs and behavior.

_____ sin must stay _____ so it will be _____.

C. By betraying God in our _____ of sin, we show _____ for the spiritual life God desires.

No confession—_____ of no need _____ atheism

II. Our _____ hearts testify to the _____ nature of real _____.

A. The _____: Our goal should be _____ to sin!

B. The _____: Our _____ is not in ourselves, but in our Advocate!

C. The _____: Our life is to be _____ in the power of the _____ of our life!

In my walk:

1. I should have a _____ soul.
2. I should have a _____ life.
3. I should have a _____ will.
4. I should have a _____ heart.