

Sermon Notes

The Road to Recovery

Numbers 21:4-9;

John 3:14-16

September 11, 2011

I. This road may be _____ through our own _____.

A. _____ easily comes from _____ guilt.

B. _____ easily comes from _____ grace.

C. _____ easily comes from _____ goals.

II. This road may be _____ through our own _____ to pain.

A. There is a pain in _____.

B. There is a pain in _____.

III. This road may be _____ by those who _____ what to do about the sin in their lives.

A. The stark stare of _____

B. The sure step of _____

C. The satisfying sense of _____

D. The sweet source of _____

Conclusion:

1. Is your _____ keeping you from the right road?
2. Have you become _____ to your own pain?
3. Would you allow yourself to be _____ with the Spirit of God?
4. Do you not _____ to follow the road to recovery?

Sermon Notes

The Road to Recovery

Numbers 21:4-9;

John 3:14-16

September 11, 2011

I. This road may be _____ through our own _____.

A. _____ easily comes from _____ guilt.

B. _____ easily comes from _____ grace.

C. _____ easily comes from _____ goals.

II. This road may be _____ through our own _____ to pain.

A. There is a pain in _____.

B. There is a pain in _____.

III. This road may be _____ by those who _____ what to do about the sin in their lives.

A. The stark stare of _____

B. The sure step of _____

C. The satisfying sense of _____

D. The sweet source of _____

Conclusion:

1. Is your _____ keeping you from the right road?
2. Have you become _____ to your own pain?
3. Would you allow yourself to be _____ with the Spirit of God?
4. Do you not _____ to follow the road to recovery?